Technology categories

You can apply to present your innovation, which should fit into one of the following four categories:

1. New research reagents
2. New research device or apparatus
3. New combination or use of Thermo Fisher products for solving a problem or creating a new use
4. Technology that enhances an existing Thermo Fisher product

How do I submit my innovation?

Complete the attached submission form and email it to innovationdayeurope@thermofisher.com Additional documents are permitted. Multiple submissions are welcome. Please use one submission form per innovation.

Please ensure your innovation is:

- Non-confidential*
- In English
- Limited to 2,000 characters
- Submitted by Friday 14 April 2017

* All information submitted is understood to be non-confidential and will be treated accordingly. Please consider all relevant policies of your organisation and applicable legal requirements before submitting an idea. For example, if you are a university employee, you may wish to consult with your technology transfer office before applying.

What happens once I have submitted my idea?

You will receive a confirmation email notifying you that your submission has been received. Please note that once we have received your submission, it cannot be further amended. Your initial submission will be reviewed by a team of Thermo Fisher employees. On 24 April 2017, you will be informed by email if you have been selected as one of the presenters.

Attendance without submission

You are welcome to attend the Innovation Day Europe event even if you are not presenting an idea. Please register by 1 May 2017, by sending an email with your full contact details to innovationdayeurope@thermofisher.com Attendance is free of charge.

We look forward to receiving your innovative ideas and meeting you in person on 11 May. Should you have any questions in the meantime, please email innovationdayeurope@thermofisher.com
