

BIO DEUTSCHLAND

European Business Development Conference

7 – 8 October 2014 | Dresden | Germany

Piers Allin

Piers Allin is the Director Regulatory Affairs for EBE (European Biopharmaceutical Enterprises) where he is responsible for providing the regulatory, technical and manufacturing lead for the Association.

Piers started his career in the pharmaceutical industry working in an a research function in immunology for GSK. Having taken a years sabbatical for a business course, Piers rejoined GSK in a UK based marketing function with responsibility for the Middle East and Africa and was subsequently transferred within the Company to Belgium to join the vaccines division. After leaving GSK, Piers worked as a Consultant, providing business development services for client companies before joining EBE in 2007.

Piers holds a BSc in Physiology and Biochemistry, and an MSc in Immunology.