Robert Ang

Robert Ang, MD, MBA, currently serves as the Senior Vice President of Business Development at Bavarian Nordic A/S, a position he has held since August 2013. Bavarian Nordic is an international biotechnology company developing and manufacturing novel cancer immunotherapies and vaccines for infectious diseases. In this role, Dr. Ang oversees all business development transactions including in- and out-licensing and M&A.

Prior to joining Bavarian Nordic, Dr. Ang served as the Vice President of Medical Affairs at Cadence Pharmaceuticals from October 2009 to August 2013. In this role, he was responsible for medical information (including the call center, standard responses and product Dossier), the medical science liaison group, publications, grants and Phase 4 clinical studies. In addition, Dr. Ang reviewed promotional and training materials for medical accuracy. He managed a team of 12 MSLs, 2 MSL Regional Directors and several in-house medical affairs staff. In addition, Dr. Ang oversaw and managed business development for Cadence Pharmaceuticals, and executed a license transaction with Terumo Corporation.

Dr. Ang has over 11 years of combined experience in operations, investments and commercialization within the healthcare industry. Prior to Cadence, Dr. Ang worked at Frazier Healthcare Ventures, a leading healthcare venture capital firm. At Frazier, he led two investment rounds in Cadence Pharmaceuticals alongside other investments in specialty pharmaceuticals and biotechnology, including Incline Therapeutics (now The Medicines Company), Alnara Pharmaceuticals (now Eli Lilly) and Collegium Pharmaceuticals. Prior to this, Dr. Ang founded Cure Therapeutics, a venture-funded early-stage pharmaceutical company, and served as its Chief Operating Officer and was primarily responsible for CMC, regulatory and intellectual property matters. Dr. Ang also has experience in management consulting with the Boston Consulting Group, and general surgical experience. He received his medical degree at the University of Western Australia and an MBA with Honors from Columbia Business School.
